

CAMELOT

at the Festival Theatre in Stratford
Friday September 16, 2011

Lerner & Loewe's beloved classic Camelot is on stage at the Festival Theatre in Stratford. Merlin taught King Arthur well. He establishes the perfect kingdom of Camelot, the best knights in the world at the Round Table, and even finds himself a kind, loving wife in Queen Guenevere. Then, along comes the French knight, Lancelot. At first hated by all, he eventually proves himself and becomes the King's best friend and the best knight of the Round Table. He also becomes the Queen's lover, no matter how guilty both feel. Alas, Camelot cannot last!

A world of magnificent musical entertainment, this Tony Award winning musical comes alive with lovingly drawn portraits from fantasy and legend.

Prior to the performance enjoy lunch at Demetre's Family Restaurant.

Cost per person:

$139.00
