TWELFTH NIGHT

Starring Brian Dennehy as Sir Toby Belch

At the Festival Theatre in Stratford

Wednesday September 28, 2011

Brian Dennehy has returned to the Stratford stage to portray Sir Toby Belch in this year's production of Twelfth Night. The Countess Olivia is presented at the play's beginning as an independent and powerful woman. The sudden deaths of her father and her brother have left her in charge of her own household and have thereby given her power over such male relatives as Sir Toby Belch. Her status as a wealthy, aristocratic single woman makes her the focus of male attention. As is usual in Shakespeare's comedy, the play complicates many tangled relationships before it finally and wonderfully untangles them.

Prior to the performance enjoy a delicious lunch at Demetres Family Restaurant with your choice of roast beef, chicken or filet of sole.

Cost per person:

$ 139.00
